INTRODUCTION

Running in the dark is a No-Go. You could be an unintentional target for a distracted driver. Distract them yourself and make sure they stay far away from you with these light up bands. Put them on your ankles, your bicep, or maybe just dangle it off of you if you don't like wearing something like that. Either way - be safe

PACKAGE CONTENTS

2x Safety Arm Bands

HOW TO USE

- 1) Open Package contents and make sure you have both arm bands and that they are undamaged.
- 2) Remove the plastic piece that is stopping the power from energizing band by pulling it out gently
- 3) Next you're going to strap the band to your desired location, wherever that might be
- 4) Pull tight so it doesn't fall off and make the two velcro pieces hug so they stick together.
- 5) Lastly hit that power button and get to moving!
